

BASEBALL MAN-AGERS FOR 1912

Many baseball clubs in the major and minor leagues have engaged new managers for the coming season. The large number of managerial changes each season is caused by the unwritten baseball law which puts it up to a manager to produce a winner. Interference There Somewhere.
"I don't think my husband loves me any more." "Way not?" "The other day I said to him: 'John, if I should die would you get married again?' and he said he wouldn't." "Isn't that all right?" "Yes, but I wish you could have heard the positive way he said it."

Beyond His Ken.
A teacher writes that she had a new pupil fill in a reference card last week. One blank asked for "Nationality of Parents." This had to be explained to the child. Then she wrote down: "Papa is Irish and mamma is German. But I don't know what they were before they were married."

Naturally He Was Sick.
He came creeping in at the usual hour when a man finds it convenient to enter his house with as little commotion as possible. He replied, in response to the usual wifely query put to gentlemen who arrive home at that hour of the night that he had been sitting up with a sick friend. "A sick friend, indeed! And what ailed him?" "Why, he lost $87."

Would Have Preferred Cheese.
Rats in Washington ate up over $2,000 worth in bills, but we are of the opinion that if they had been given an option in the matter they would have preferred to have had it in cheese.
